

3. Is the communication available to all permit holders within the group?
 Yes No Comments
4. Is the communication shared on a regular basis with any Forest Service personnel?
 Yes in what ways No
5. Are articles or information about NFH included in the communication?
 Yes If so, how? No
6. Are articles or information about local Forest Service activities included in the communication?
 Yes If so, how? No
7. In what ways do you believe the communication serves permit holders?

Please put a check beside examples that best describe the goals and achievements of this communication. Include any additional comments about accomplishments achieved through your newsletter, web site, tele-communication, etc.

1. Keeping members informed through articles that include or highlight:
- Minutes from leadership meetings
 - Minutes from membership meetings
 - Ongoing messages from officers
 - Regular treasurer's reports to members
 - Regular article contributions from Forest Service personnel
 - Addresses cabin security
 - Obtaining adequate firewood
 - Becoming better stewards of the forest
 - Local logging activities
 - Local fire safe activities
 - Hazardous tree removal
 - Maintaining cabin access roads
 - Maintaining a secure source of water for domestic use
 - Getting to know local, state, national leadership
 - Other: please specify

2. Educating members about current, pertinent issues
- How the Forest Plan affects permit holders
 - Need to be involved in a process such as lot reappraisals where the results will result in fee assessments
 - Importance of understanding Operation and Maintenance Plans
 - Need to be knowledgeable of and understand permits/licenses issued by Forest Service
 - Federal legislation which affects cabin owners
 - Importance of working cooperatively with the Forest Service
 - Understanding issues Forest Service experience and how these actions affect the recreation residence program
 - Identifying other organizations which advocate for permit holders
 - Promote partnership activities with the Forest Service and improve the working relationship between FS and cabin owners
 - Need to involve permit holders when a response is required at a local, state or national level concerning issues facing the recreation residence program
 - Issue permit holders face in other state and national tracts
 - Other: please specify

3. Promoting local, state and national membership by encouraging a sense of community by:
- Publicizing tract/state/national meetings and identifying issues to be addressed
 - Ensuring all permit holders' interests are represented
 - Publicizing and promoting social events
 - Showcasing the benefits of membership at the tract, state and national levels
 - Other: please specify.

PLEASE FEEL FREE TO ATTACH ANY ADDITIONAL PERTINENT INFORMATION